

Esperanza High School PTSA & The Princeton Review Present...

SAT, ACT, & PRA* Practice Test Day

*The PRA (Princeton Review Assessment) is a combination test that allows students to experience both the ACT & SAT in one sitting. If you want to save time and are unsure about which test better suits you, take the PRA.

Saturday, February 21

8:00am-12:30pm

Esperanza High School; Library

1830 N. Kellogg Dr. Anaheim, CA

Get ready for the real exams. See how you'll score without affecting your college record!

- Take a full-length test under realistic testing conditions
- Find out whether you are best suited for either the SAT or the ACT

Cost: $10 per date

(CHECKS ONLY; Proceeds to benefit the EHS PTSA)

Parent Info/Scoresback Nights:

Location: Library

7:00 - 8:00pm - Thursday, February 26th

- Receive a score report showing your strengths and weaknesses
- Get free information about college admissions and test taking strategies to improve your score

Test Recommendations (C/O = Class Of)

- C/O 2010: SAT, ACT, or PRA
- C/O 2011: PRA

Please bring a calculator and two #2 pencils

EHS PTSA Practice Exam Registration Form

Submit registration form to the front office by Feb. 18. CHECKS ONLY ($10) payable to Esperanza PTSA.

Questions? Call The Princeton Review @ 949.553.9411 or email zachg@review.com.

Name: _____ Grade: _____

Phone: _____ E-mail: _____

Test: February 21th Practice Exam (please choose one test-type) ☐ SAT ☐ ACT ☐ PRA