

"EARLY WELCOME" PROGRAM

In an effort to serve local high schools outside of Orange Unified High School District, Santiago Canyon College is pleased to introduce the "Early Welcome" Program, a joint effort among admissions, counseling, and outreach. This program addresses the importance of maintaining relationships with local high schools by allowing graduating seniors the ability to complete matriculation services in spring for the fall 2010 semester. These services consist of placement testing, orientation and large group advisement, and online registration for SCC courses.

SPACE IS LIMITED! APPLY EARLY!

To participate in this program, complete the following steps:

1. APPLICATION

- High School students outside Orange Unified School District will have to apply online between March 1, 2010 and March 25, 2010.
